

reader contribution by RYBN

this is a short compilation of eclectic sources,

all the documents are here :

<http://rybn.org/projects/alchorisma/>

with:

- a series of illustrations and diagrams taken from patents related to Captcha and amazon patents, to human labor, human computers and human workers in algorithmic processes, and algo-human relations from the point of view of ingenieers who designed these algorithms

- abstracts of academic publication and industrial booklet about Cat bonds; extracted from the documentation part of ADMXI plateform, about Volatility Storms by Femke Herregraven :

<http://www.rybn.org/ANTI/ADMXI/documentation/index.php?ln=en&id=9>

- Filem Flusser "Vampirotheutis Infernalis" (the first pages of the book) and Louis Bec intervention at Ars Electronica in 1993 (this one is in french only sorry for that), about artificial life ; extracted from the general documentation part of ADMXI plateform,

<http://www.rybn.org/ANTI/ADMXI/documentation/index.php?ln=en>

- Danowski & De Castro english version of the extract published in the last issue of Laboratory Planet, from "Is there any world to come"

+ ADMXI full doc

<http://www.rybn.org/ANTI/ADMXI/documentation/?ln=en>

+ Norbert Wiener, God and Golem Inc.

<http://www.rybn.org/ANTI/ADMXI/documentation/ADMXI/II. ALGORITHM ENGINEERING/1963/Weiner god and golem inc.pdf>

+ Manifesto on algorithmic humanitarianism vDanMcQuillan

<http://kim.hfg-karlsruhe.de/manifesto-on-algorithmic-humanitarianism/>